

19-20 March 2015

ARSAD

Audio Description – kid's stuff

Renata Nych, Jerzy Myszak
the Masovian Association of Work for the Disabled „De Facto”

Anna Sadowska
John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin

Press accessibility in Poland

4 magazines for 2,600 VIP

2,000 press titles for sighted readers

1,800,000 – all VIP in Poland in 2004

0,14% of VIP subscribe the press

e-Kiosk (2009)

- 120,000 press pages every year
- 2,500 members of e-Kiosk
- 66 press titles
- 700,000 copies of newspapers and magazines every year

Voluntary School Groups

26 recruitment meetings in 18 schools for 591 students aged 13-16

289 students from 16 schools joined the in-school training

22 Voluntary School Groups with 10 to 19 students

Training

- in-school training - 30 hrs, 289Ss
- e-learning – 12 hrs, 269 Ss

The full training was successfully completed by 268 students

The benefits

- 1) Illustrations as a source of information
- 2) 650 visually impaired teenagers can regularly access the press
- 3) Minimizing discrimination and exclusion
- 4) Language skills improvement in volunteers
- 5) Developing social skills: communication, problem solving, responsibility, working to deadlines

