FROM DATA TO ARCHIVE: Interpreting the BADEMS Sources PROGRAMME

1 JULY 2026

11:30-12:00

Arrival to Badems Office

12:00-14:00

Discussion of the Database. We will devote substantial time to discussing the pre-circulated questions concerning the data gathered in the BADEMS database. During this morning session, we will focus on the following three questions: Which cases, in particular, draw your attention? What do you think is missing? What should we include in—or exclude from—the digital archive we will build from these data?

Discussants: Diana Berruezo-Sánchez, Nuno Vila Santa, Cristina Hernández Casado, Eduardo Corona Pérez, Magdalena Díaz Hernández, Gerard Rosich, Elizabeth Liliann Blakemore, Erica Feild-Marchello, Rubén Bracero Salvat, Jessie Stoolman-Bakhat, Marcelo Cabarcas Ortega.

14:00-15:30

Lunch at Lletres cafeteria

16:00-18:30

Discussion of the Database. In this afternoon session, we will consider the following questions: What claims do these data enable us to make? In what ways does this database differ from others? Which aspects are most relevant to your own line of research, and why?

Discussants: Diana Berruezo-Sánchez, Nuno Vila Santa, Cristina Hernández Casado, Eduardo Corona Pérez, Magdalena Díaz Hernández, Gerard Rosich, Elizabeth Liliann Blakemore, Erica Feild-Marchello, Rubén Bracero Salvat, Jessie Stoolman-Bakhat, Marcelo Cabarcas Ortega.

The second day of the workshop provides an opportunity for team members to share materials and receive feedback on ongoing research. Participants are invited to present selected sources, archival findings, methodological approaches, or emerging ideas for discussion.
