As a candidate applying to the TOUCH predoctoral programme, I declare:

- Knowledge of the following eligibility criterion and application requirement:

Candidates must hold a degree that allows admission to the official doctoral programme of the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona (UAB) at the time to join the host institution (it is not requested that the candidate holds the degree at the time of submitting the application). Detailed information on the documents required for admission to a UAB PhD programme can be consulted on the UAB website.

- Not submitting a Master Degree certification at the time of my application, I will fulfil all requirements to access to the doctoral programme at the time of starting the contract.
