

PRIVACY POLICY

Workshop MRAMA organisers will use your personal data to:

- Register you as a workshop participant.
- Inform you about workshop running and its next announcements. For this reason, your personal data will be kept as long as the workshop MRAMA is programmed.
- Send you, by e-mail, the list of participants, which contains: name, surnames and e-mail address, and name, city and country of the company or institution of participants. As it is an international event, the data from that list may be transferred to third countries.
- Send you, by e-mail, the satisfaction questionnaire.
- Accomplish the required administrative, accounting and fiscal procedures.

You can contact the person responsible for processing your data, by workshop.mrama@uab.cat.

The processing of your data does not involve automated decisions, nor the elaboration of profiles with predictive purposes of personal preferences, behaviours or attitudes.

In accordance with current legislation on personal data protection, you can revoke the consent, and exercise the rights of access, rectification, cancellation, opposition and limitation of processing and portability of your data, by addressing the person responsible for processing.

You can also address the opportune enquiries to the Delegate for Data Protection at UAB (proteccio.dades@uab.cat).

Likewise, you can present the opportune claims to the Catalan Data Protection Authority (apdcat@gencat.cat).
